No.2898/FS/2018

22 February 2018

Dear Sir,

The Tibetan leadership in India is planning to organize a series of events in end-March/early-April 2018 to mark the beginning of 60th year in exile of His Holiness the Dalai Lama (HHDL). We understand that this includes a large public event titled "Thank You India" being organized at Thyagaraj Sports Complex in New Delhi on 1 April 2018. The Dalai Lama set-up also intends to invite a number of Indian dignitaries. These are likely to be followed-up by additional events in Delhi as well as other States of India.

2. The proposed period will be a very sensitive time in the context of India's relations with China. Participation by senior leaders or Government functionaries, either from the Central Government or State Governments, is not desirable, and should be discouraged.

3. It is requested that Cabinet Secretariat may consider issuing a classified circular advisory advising all Ministries/Departments of Government of India as well as State Governments not to accept any invitation or to participate in the proposed commemorative events.

Yours sincerely,

(Vijay Gokhale)
